

Development and Evaluation of Human-Computer Interaction of a Serious Game for People with Dementia

Studies Reveal the Need of Extended and Adaptive Design Principles

OBJECTIVES: Supporting successful non-medical therapies by technological innovations

- Improvement of user's everyday functioning and cognitive abilities
- Triggering joy through gamification in a secure environment
- Providing the opportunity to fulfill unusual tasks self-determined

